Allegro Moderato

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked 'Allegro Moderato'. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the second measure, with lyrics: 'I just re-ceived an an-swer to a let-ter that I wrote, From a I showed this let-ter to a friend who lives next door to me And I pal who marched a way, He was wound-ed in the trench-es some-where in heard him quick-ly say, "Good bye, pal, I must be go-ing, I'm off to France and I wor-ried a-bout him night and day, "Are you get-ting well" was what I war, and I hope that I'm wound-ed right a-way, If what's in this let-ter here is wrote, This is what he ans-tered in his note: true, I'll get shot and then I'll write to you:"

Goodbye Broadway, Hello France!

Goodbye, Broadway, Hello France!
Where you play and sing this song, you'll know why the regiments on their way to France adopted it as their own. In the language of the boys—"It's got everything." The big hit of the New York Winter Garden and positively the biggest song hit of the year. A wonderful fox-trot or one-step. By Reisner, Davis, and Baskette.

Just try over the choruses printed below and then you'll know why song experts consider these four songs in a class by themselves.

You've simply got to have them if you want to play and sing the latest and most popular tunes—the four really big hits of the year.

Vaudeville performers are singing them in hundreds of cities to thousands and thousands of people who applaud vigorously, thus showing their approval.

If you haven't heard them in your city as yet be sure to tell your Theatre Manager you would like to hear them sung. He will be glad to accommodate you. And get all four of them for yourself, today.

Where Do We Go from Here?
Another song that our soldier boys are singing everywhere and most everybody else. Too. The Phila. North American says: "The Tipperary" of 1917. It started out to be a funny song about "Paddy Mac", who drove a buck-out. Then enlisted and his song struck the fancy of the soldiers. When some one says, "Where do we go from here?" you'll get his meaning. By Johnson and Wenrich.

It's a Long Way to Berlin

"We'll sing Yankee Doodle under the Linden with some real live Yankee pep!" That's the real "do or die" spirit of this up-to-the-minute war-song hit. Better than "Tipperary" because it goes straight to the point. The music gets there, too—gets to your heart and your feet. By Arthur Fields and Leon Flatow.

"Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here"

Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here

Here's a song you think you know. But did you ever hear the verses or did you ever see the music? It's all here—and it's all the sort of stuff that puts pep in to everybody. One of the greatest marching refrains ever written—and just as good as a fox-trot or one-step. By D. A. Ezzon, Theodore Morse, and Arthur Sullivan.

CHORUS
Hail! Hail!—the gang's all here...
What the dance do we care, What the dance do we care,
Hail! Hail!—the gang's all here... What the dance do we care.
