SONG

Music by
A. SBARBARO
(Of The Original Dixieland Jazz Band)

Slowly f Vamp mf

The piano introduction is in 2/4 time, featuring a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It begins with a 'Slowly' tempo and a forte (f) dynamic, marked with a 'Vamp' instruction. The melody is played in the right hand with a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with chords and single notes. The piece concludes with a 'Vamp' section at a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic.

VOICE

"Go get my smell-in' salts" said Liz-a Lee, "I feel a faint-in' fit come o-ver me, —
"A blues can make a mon-key out of me, A pret-ty blues could make me climb a tree, —

The first vocal entry is on a single staff in treble clef. The piano accompaniment is on two staves (treble and bass clef). The lyrics are written below the vocal staff. The piano part features a steady bass line with chords and single notes, marked with a piano (p) dynamic.

Each time I hear — that mus-ic queer, — Makes me feel so fun-ny, lis-ten to me hon-ey,
How I en-thuse — o-ver the blues, — I get so ex-cit-ed when I am in-vit-ed

The second vocal entry continues the melody. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and single notes. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff.

I warn you now my ba-by, stop that mus-ic or I'm sure-ly gon-na pass a-
To lis-ten to a band of jazz mu-si-cians with their lov-in' tem-per-men-tal

The third vocal entry concludes the song. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and single notes. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff.

CHORUS

That trom-bone means those mourn-in' tones, that drum-mer wears out both his shoes, Just watch that

Clar-i-net — flirt with the sweet Cor-net,— And the Pia-no play-er nev-er seems to for-get— That he is "strut-tin' his stuff" Sweet Dad-dy dear I nev-er get e-nough,

I mean of Mourn-in' Blues. That trom-bone Blues
