

7-1133-
35.1

SINCE MAGGIE DOOLEY LEARNED THE HOOLEY HOOLEY

WORDS BY
EDGAR LESLIE AND
BERT KALMAR
MUSIC BY
GEORGE W. MEYER

Since Maggie Dooley Learned The Hooley Hooley.

Words by
BERT KALMAN
& EDGAR LESLIE

Musical by
GEORGE W. METZGER

Moderate.

Chorus.

Maggie Dooley packed her grip and left her job, for a
Maggie Dooley has the people all off their feet, with her

Full ready.

trip to Hon-o - ri-o.
now Ha-wai - lan' Blarney.

Maggie Dooley learned to dance and all her a while,
Every body's learning times and holding a tail,

Come back home down like a Rio Rio.
On the lakes of old Rio - lan' say,

She has a brand new walk, she
I think it's a Rio - grass, The

to the thimble - too talky She's made a home - ly - in out of the poor old Corn - ly Cuck, man - or of the plain Are mock - ing wild men out of all the poor old to - do - do men.

Chorus.

Once May - gle One - ly, learned the Bishop One - ly, Indeed is that - ing a - way. The Down - ings and that - ings have sold their still - ly - take, And bought W - in - ly - love in play. The

Oh Miss K - ly Wiggles just like J - ly, When those thin - ings away. And one - ly rich - ings on the coast, all learning up the shoddy street, When May - gle Dearly learned the One - ly, Since - ly.

A VERY BEAUTIFUL BALLAD THAT'S BOUND TO REACH THE HEART OF THE SONG LOVER

WRITTEN BY THE SONG MASTER

IRVING BERLIN

When The Black Sheep Returns To The Fold.

Chorus.

Every thing that he did in the - past was, And they will meet him back in the fold,
 He knows by their subordi - na - tion, That the pain of his absence has told, There is -

Copyright 1919 by Wolfson, Berlin & Joseph Co. United States Pat. Off. N.Y. City, N.Y.
 International Copyright Secured.

