

BIGGEST "HIT" IN 20 YEARS

If the Man in the Moon were a Coon.

By FRED FISCHER.

Author of "Every Little Bit Helps," etc.

Moderato.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in C major, marked 'Moderato.' and 'f' (forte). The piano part features a rhythmic melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The vocal part enters with two verses. The first verse is in a higher register, and the second is in a lower register. The piano accompaniment continues throughout, providing a steady harmonic and rhythmic foundation. The score concludes with a final piano flourish.

1. Say, Jas - per, 'taint no
2. Most ev - 'ry one has use talk - ing e - ven though you talk from now till noon,.....

heard sto - ries that a chick - en is a coon's de - light,.....

Don't try to tell me, Mis-ter Know-it-all, a coon is up in the moon;
Just think the dangers to a hen roost with that good old moon out of sight;

Why! a nigger, with his brown figure, cert-'n'y
'Deed! chick-en would be soft pick-in' if that dark-ens up the sil-v'ry moon; Wake up! you're man up in the moon were black; Oh, my! the dreaming with your eyes a-glare, You great big fool - ish coon.....

 har - vest for that dar - key with That great big sack on his back.....

CHORUS.

If the man in the moon were a coon, coon, coon,..... what would you do?..... He would fade with his shade the sil - v'ry moon, moon, moon,.. a - way from you;..... No roam - ing 'round the park at night, No spoon-ing in the brightmoon-light, If the man in the moon were a coon, coon coon. If the coon.....

p-f
