You're Just A Flower From An Old Bouquet

The Feature Song In Elsie Janis Birds-Eye Revue
"Puzzles of 1925"

Try these few measures of the Chorus

CHORUS

First line of musical notation for the chorus. It consists of a vocal melody line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are: "You're just a flower from an old bouquet." The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. A dynamic marking of mp-f is present.

You're just a flower from an old bouquet.

Second line of musical notation for the chorus. The vocal melody continues with the lyrics: "I've waited patiently for you each day. You're just a". The piano accompaniment continues with similar rhythmic patterns.

I've wait-ed pa-tient-ly for you each day. You're just a Third line of musical notation for the chorus. The vocal melody concludes with the lyrics: "dream come true I know Dear, my dream, wonderful dream of". The piano accompaniment includes a triplet figure in the right hand. A dynamic marking of mp-f is present.

dream come true I know Dear, my dream, wonder-ful dream of
