We do not publish anything and everything offered us; quality, rather than quantity has been our motto, and these thematic demonstrate our strict adherence to that principle. You hear these melodies once, and you immediately hum or whistle them; they are popular because they please the ear. As to their intrinsic merit, they all have the "House of Hits" trade mark on them. Isn't that quite enough recommendation to your passing notice.

WHY DON'T THE BAND PLAY?

Words by Bob Cole & J.W. Johnson

Music by Rosamond Johnson

Tempo di Marcia

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 6/8 time, marked 'ff' (fortissimo). The introduction consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The second system continues the melody and bass line. The piano introduction is followed by a vocal melody line. The lyrics are: 1. Stroll - ing through the park, Out up - on a lark, 2. On some oth - er night, When the moon is bright, 3. Ma - ny years have passed, Mar - ried life at last, The piano accompaniment continues with a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, marked 'p' (piano).

3065 - 4

With your sweet Ver-be-na by your side;.....
And the stars are twink-ling in the skies;.....
Seems to rob you of those sin-gle joys;.....

Plight-ing vows of love, By the stars a-bove,
In the same old way, Same old things you say,
And the same old dodge, Go-ing to the lodge,

Swear-ing you'll be true what-e'er be-tide.....
Gaz-ing in each oth-ers same old eyes.....
Gives you chance to get out with the boys.....

3085 - 4

If the maid de-mure, Feel-ing ra-ther sure
Flirt-ing days have fled, Time has come to wed,
Com-ing home quite late, On that same old skate,
mf

That your love would not for-ev-er flame,
And the gen-tle maid-en you im-plore,
Latch-key will not find its prop-er place,

Sud-den-ly should say, "Let us name the day!" You'd "Won't you be my wife?" "Not up-on your life!" Why Wif-ey says, "Ta, ta!" Go-ing back to Ma." Well, feel an in-cli-na-tion to ex-claim,

use that same ex-press-ion as be-fore?
how would this ex-press-ion suit the case?

3065 - 4
